This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. A

STATEMENT

PUBLIC ACCOUNTS

IRELAND.

BY

THE RIGHT HONOURABLE

SIR HENRY CAVENDISH, BART.

LONDON:

PRINTED FOR JOHN STOCKDALE, PICCADILLY.

M.DCC.XCI.

232. e. 227.

TO

MR. STOCKDALE, PICCADILLY.

Doveridge, Dec. 2, 1790.

SIR,

THE following accounts are publiſhed for the uſe of the Young Members of the New Parliament in Ireland.—They have been collected at various times. No particular mode of arrangement has been obſerved, as I never had any intention of publiſhing them. Mr. Sinclair intended to lay a ſtate of the Iriſh Finances before the public. I hope he will do ſo, as it cannot come from a better quarter. Poſſibly theſe Accounts may be of ſome uſe to him. I hope they are correct; if any errors ſhould appear, I ſhall be obliged to any Gentleman to point them out, and they ſhall be rectified. They are taken from the public accounts laid before Parliament every ſeſſion. There are a few

few aggregate articles, about the component parts of which there may be ſome criticiſm. They are but few.

I ſhould be glad to have the minds of people on this ſide of the water turned a little more towards Ireland. The more the ſituation of that country is known, the better it will be for the general intereſt of the Britiſh empire.—Great Britain, for its own ſake, ought to give every poſſible encouragement to Ireland, as I am certain there are not upon earth men more attached to the Britiſh Conſtitution, and the Houſe of Brunſwick, than the Iriſh; or who would with more zeal riſk their lives and fortunes in defence of both.

I am, Sir,

Your moſt humble ſervant,

H. CAVENDISH.

from various Commentators; to which is now firſt added, a copious Index to all the remarkable Paſſages and Words, conſiſting of ſeven hundred pages: By the Rev. Samuel Ayſcough, F. A. S. and Aſſiſtant Librarian of the Britiſh Muſeum.

London: Printed for JOHN STOCKDALE, Piccadilly.

 The want of an Index to all the beautiful and remarkable Paſſages in Shakſpeare, has long been regretted; but the Difficulty of the Undertaking has hitherto prevented every Attempt. Mr. Stockdale has already experienced a liberal Encouragement from the Public for his Edition of Shakſpeare, in one Volume, 8vo. and to whom he begs Leave to return his grateful Acknowledgments.

☞ For the Convenience of Ladies and Gentlemen that may think this Volume too large, a ſecond Volume Title is printed, and a Title to the Index; ſo that the Purchaſer may either bind the above Work in one, two, or three Volumes.

2 The Hiſtory of the Union between England and Scotland; with a Collection of Original Papers relating thereto, by the celebrated Daniel De Foe. With an introduction in which the Conſequences and Probability of a like Union between this Country and Ireland are conſidered. By John Lewis de Lolme, Author of the Work on the Conſtitution of England. To which is prefixed a Life of the Author, by George Chalmers, Eſq. and a copious Index. In One large Volume, Quarto, containing One Thouſand Pages, with an elegant Engraving of the Author. Price, in Boards - - 1 10 0

N. B. A few Copies are printed on Royal Paper 1 15 0

☞ The Union between England and Scotland, being an extremely intereſting Event, has led the Publiſher to imagine, that a new Edition of this Work of De Foe, which is grown very ſcarce, would be acceptable to the Public, eſpecially at the preſent Time, when the Situation of Affairs in Ireland induces many Perſons to wiſh that a ſimilar Union between Great Britain and that Kingdom may take Place; as it may cauſe ſuch an Union, if not to be effected, at leaſt to be propoſed, and to become, for a Time, the Subject of Debate in both Countries.
